The music industry stands on the edge of a new wave of environmentally conscious packaging. Now is an opportunity for individual artists and labels to lead the entertainment industry into the post oil based packaging era and in the process, be rewarded with significant publicity benefits.

Gain lost customers from the MP3 wave with a unique value added product- not only do they get their favourite CD- but get a piece of hemp plastic to hold in their hands and show to their friends.

As supported by Greenpeace, Friends of The Earth, The Body Shop and you next!
